

Dr. Lucia Tomassini - Research Lecturer in Sustainability in Hospitality and Tourism

With a background in Architecture and Urban Planning and an MSc in Urban Development and Reconstruction in developing countries, Lucia is a PhD graduate from the School of Events, Tourism and Hospitality Management at Leeds Beckett University (UK). Her academic research embraces studies on the relationship between the tourism and development agenda, social-geography, sustainability and circular economy, small tourism firms committed to an ethical vision of tourism, and uses of narrative analysis in tourism and hospitality studies