

Do you have a conference paper that you are working on but want collaborators?

Working on a PhD or Masters research proposal?

Are you a member of staff working on a research project and you are looking for some feedback on an idea?

YOU ARE INVITED to present your latest research in poster format at the AIHR Research Day 2022

Do you have a group of Masters students who would benefit from the experience of presenting their work to others?

Are you conducting cross-disciplinary research and want to present it to people outside your own Academy for fresh ideas?

WEDNESDAY 20 APRIL 2022

De Eendracht Windmill on the Leeuwarden campus.
Morning and afternoon options for presenting your poster or viewing the work of others.
