

Dr. Rodney Westerlaken MA, BEd

Rodney Westerlaken was born in 1982 in Nieuwendijk, The Netherlands. He studied Knowledge and Education Management (BEd) in 's Hertogenbosch, Indonesian Studies (MA) in Leiden and did his PhD in Bali, Indonesia. Currently Rodney is pursuing a second Master in Environmental studies (MSc) in Bali, Indonesia as well.

Within NHL Stenden Rodney Westerlaken focuses on the people dimension of sustainability and its roots in altruism, with a specific focus on human and children rights, animal rights, cultural heritage management and disaster management.

Besides being employed at NHL Stenden Rodney Westerlaken runs his own foundation Westerlaken foundation / Yayasan Bali Bersih (www.westerlakenfoundation.org) which focuses on the above mentioned research interests with hands on programs and research based projects.